CONFIDENTIALITY, NONDISCLOSURE, AND DATA SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered as of _____ by and between Pushing Capital, LLC ("Company") and _____ ("Employee").

1. Confidential Information.

"Confidential Information" includes all nonpublic information obtained by Employee through employment, including user/client names, addresses, dates of birth, social security numbers, driver information, DMV records, credit information, financial information, tax-related information, reports, documents, logins, passwords, policies, operating procedures, pricing, vendor information, and trade secrets.

2. Non-Disclosure.

Employee shall keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential and shall not disclose it to any third party except as expressly authorized in writing by Company and as required in the ordinary course of Employee's assigned duties.

3. Limited Use.

Employee shall use Confidential Information solely for Company business and only for lawful, assigned purposes. Employee shall not access any record out of curiosity, convenience, personal interest, or for any purpose not expressly authorized by Company.

4. Security Obligations.

Employee shall follow all Company security rules, including password protection, device security, restricted access, secure transmission, secure storage, clean-desk practices, and immediate reporting of any suspected misuse, breach, or unauthorized disclosure.

5. No Copying or Removal.

Employee shall not remove, download, print, photograph, screenshot, forward, or retain Confidential Information except as required for assigned work and only through Company-approved systems and procedures.

6. Return and Destruction.

Upon request by Company, or immediately upon termination of employment, Employee shall return all Company property and Confidential Information and shall not retain any copies in any form.

7. Survival.

Employee's confidentiality obligations survive the end of employment and continue for so long as the information remains confidential, and indefinitely as to trade secrets.

8. Remedies.

Employee acknowledges that unauthorized use or disclosure may cause irreparable harm to Company and/or its users/clients, and that Company may seek injunctive relief and any other lawful remedy.

9. No Non-Compete.

This Agreement is intended only to protect confidential information and does not prohibit lawful future employment or lawful competition.
