RE: W-2 Employment Offer, Duties, and Compliance Acknowledgment

Dear _____:

Pushing Capital LLC ("Company"), is pleased to offer you employment as a W-2 employee in the position of Data Security and Monitoring Specialist / _____, effective _____, subject to the terms below.

1. Position and Duties.

Your duties include monitoring, reviewing, processing, safeguarding, and administering authorized records and documents for Company-approved users/clients, including, where applicable:

User/Client Name: _____

State of Residence: _____

You may assist with identity verification, document review, data-security monitoring, DMV/title/registration support, tax-information authorization handling, consumer-report compliance files, and related records, but only to the extent the Company has obtained all legally required disclosures, authorizations, powers of attorney, and agency-specific forms.

2. Lawful Scope of Work.

You shall handle DMV, IRS, credit, financial, vehicle, background, and personally identifying information only as specifically assigned by Company and only for lawful, documented business purposes.

3. Confidentiality and Security.

As a condition of employment, you must sign and comply with the Company's Confidentiality, Nondisclosure, and Data Security Agreement, together with all privacy, records-access, and information-security policies adopted by Company from time to time.

4. No Unauthorized Access.

You shall not access, request, copy, transmit, store, discuss, or disclose any user/client information unless:

(a) the access is required for your assigned duties;

(b) Company has confirmed the necessary written authorization is on file; and

(c) the access is lawful and approved by Company.

5. Compliance and Incident Reporting.

You must immediately report any suspected misuse, unauthorized access, loss, breach, fraud, security event, or compliance concern involving Company information or any user/client information.

6. Compensation.

You will be paid at the rate of $ _____ per [hour / year / month], less all lawful deductions, on the Company's regular designated payday(s) and in compliance with applicable wage laws.

7. Employment Relationship.

Your employment shall be [AT-WILL / FOR A DEFINITE TERM ENDING _____]. No oral statement changes this status. Any change must be in a written agreement signed by an authorized Company representative.

8. Conditions of Employment.

This offer is conditioned on your completion of all onboarding documents, including payroll forms, confidentiality documents, background-check forms, and any other required acknowledgments.

9. Acknowledgment.

By signing below, you acknowledge that your role may involve highly sensitive records and that Company will allow access only when required consents and authorizations are in place.
