Pushing Capital LLC

Supporting rights notice included with the background check disclosure packet.

California Civil Code Section 1786.22

Official statutory text reproduced from the California Legislative Information site for packet attachment use.

(a) An investigative consumer reporting agency shall supply files and information required under Section 1786.10 during normal business hours and on reasonable notice.

(b) Files maintained on a consumer shall be made available for the consumer's visual inspection, as follows:

(1) In person, if the consumer appears in person and furnishes proper identification. A copy of the file shall also be available for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of duplication services provided.

(2) By certified mail, if the consumer makes a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified addressee.

(3) By telephone summary, if the consumer makes a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and prepays or is directly charged any toll charges.

(c) Proper identification means information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person, including documents such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, or credit cards. Additional employment, personal, or family history may only be required if the consumer cannot reasonably identify himself or herself with the standard information above.

(d) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to explain to the consumer any information furnished under Section 1786.10.

(e) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on a consumer whenever a file is provided for visual inspection.

(f) The consumer may be accompanied by one other person of the consumer's choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. The agency may require a written statement granting permission to discuss the file in that person's presence.

Source: California Civil Code Section 1786.22. Generated 2026-03-29T19:55:57.212Z for onboarding packet assembly.